Program Overview

Canada wide, organizations are discovering that employee productivity and retention can be significantly impacted and improved by the so called "little things" that contribute to a great workplace culture. Organizations strive to achieve a high performance, forward thinking, motivational work environment, where needs are fulfilled and appreciation is shown. The word that starts to describe this kind of work culture is "TRUST".

- Learn the 6 top leadership skills necessary to engage your people in creating a dynamic and empowering workplace.
- Learn the two main reasons employees leave and how to correct that.
- Understand the impact that trust, or the lack of trust, has on people & the organization's success.
- Understand the three keys, S.A.M., to improving productivity, retention, and morale.
- Discover the real power of TRUST that drives profitability.
- Understand what great managers know that average managers do not, when it comes to employee development.

Presented by
